

WILL USE GAS IN NAVAL MANEUVERS

WILL BE TRIED OUT UNDER SIMULATED BATTLE CONDITIONS

Tear Gas Has Been Selected To Be Used in Coming Tests—Naval Officers More in Fear of Gas Than of Being Blown Out of The Water By Bombs.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 11.—The use of poisonous gases against naval vessels under simulated battle conditions will be tested for the first time during bombing experiments to be conducted off the Atlantic coast beginning June 21. While army and navy aerial forces are cooperating in an effort to demonstrate the effectiveness of aerial bombs against modern naval vessels, the chemical warfare service of the army will be launching a poison gas attack from the air in an attempt to show that the navy must immediately build up defenses against asphyxiation.

Under present plans the ship to be gassed will have a crew aboard. Non-explosive bombs filled with "tear gas" will be dropped and every man will be required to keep within the protected areas and wear a gas mask.

Officers of the chemical warfare service believe that by using a gas of intolerable concentration, that is, of sufficient strength to incapacitate but not to kill, the service can prove its contention that in the next war battleships must be made literally airtight to protect the crews.

The chemical warfare service and the war department are cooperating in conducting experiments in the use of toxic gases at sea and in building up adequate defenses to protect American sailors in the next war. As a result of these experiments important changes may be made in the design of new ships and of some under construction.

Will Use Tear Gas.
The "tear gas" which the service proposes to use in the coming tests, is a chemical compound known as phosgene. The mixture is intolerable to the eyes but is not dangerous. The significance of its effect on the battleship personnel, army officers assert, will lie in the fact that it is of a concentration and persistence similar to the instantly fatal gases which the service is prepared to use against a hostile navy.

It was pointed out today by army officers that the ventilating system of all warships was based on a suction system drawing air thru tubes to every part of the vessel. This system, they declared, would be the chief ally of an enemy gas attack. Gases prepared and in stock are of such deadly nature, the officers declare, that one whiff will kill almost instantly.

The chemical warfare service has also developed another deadly weapon to be used in naval warfare. It is a "toxic smoke" called diphenylchlorarsine, designed to be used in place of the smoke screen heretofore laid down by destroyers to shield the main fleet from the enemy.

This "toxic smoke" consists of a poisonous dust cloud designed to be liberated on the surface of the sea thru bombs and smoke boxes placed to windward of the enemy force. The poison dust will be drawn into the ventilating system of the hostile ships, the officers assert, with particularly deadly effect.

A third innovation the service is working on is the development of a system of placing a smoke screen over a fleet by the use of smoke bombs attached to parachutes and dropped from aircraft or similar bombs fired into the air from guns on the vessels. A smoke or gas is being developed for this use that will hover in the air two or three hundred feet above the ships.

Concerned Over Gas at Sea.
Naval officers admit they are concerned over the application of chemical science to war on the sea. At the annual chemical warfare service dinner held here recently, Rear Admiral Smith declared the navy was not nearly so concerned over the prospect of being "blown out of the water" by aerial bombs as it was over the development of poisonous gases as an offensive weapon against sea craft.

A careful study of the entire subject is being made at the navy department. Naval officers are particularly interested in a report this week to the effect that all destroyers have been provided with two boxes to be kept in the fire rooms at all times. One is to generate dense clouds of deadly

ORGANIZED LABOR TO OPPOSE REPEAL OF THE LUXURY TAX

Will Try to get Anti-Strike Legislation Repealed

(By The Associated Press)
Cincinnati, May 11.—The American Federation of Labor will oppose any attempt to repeal the present system of excise or "luxury" tax and substitute a sales tax. This policy was decided upon by the executive council of the federation today.

While no official announcement was made, the council, it is understood, regards any effort to substitute a sales tax for the excise tax as an attempt to shift the burden of taxation from capital to labor.

Labor officials explained that organized labor believes the present system of taxation is more equitable than that proposed calling for repeal of the excise taxes and substitution of a sales tax. They claim the sales tax would not only place the burden of taxation upon the workers, but would add materially to the cost of living.

The council decided to carry on the fight to obtain the repeal of the Kansas court of industrial relations law. The council condemned the bill as an act establishing "involuntary servitude for the workers of Kansas," and a "relic of legislation in the 15th century that establishes autocracy in industry by law."

Want Legislation Repealed.
The council will urge that the federal government take steps to have anti-strike and anti-labor legislation repealed and will renew its drive to prevent the passage of further anti-labor legislation in the various states. Renewed efforts will be authorized to prevent congress from enacting further anti-labor legislation.

A delegation from the International Brotherhood of Welfare association, headed by James Eads How, of St. Louis, appeared before the council and asked that it take steps to urge upon congress the necessity of taking care of the unemployed. Mr. How, who estimated there were between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 unemployed said he told the council this was the "opportunity time to bring to the attention of the new administration a demand for a constructive program to care for the unemployed."

Mr. How said he suggested it might be well to have a scheme of unemployed insurance like that in Denmark, Belgium, Germany and England. He said that in the west there is opportunity for work if the government would authorize the necessary appropriations for irrigation projects and if state and federal funds were supplied for highway building.

President Gompers said the council had heard Mr. How but had not promised to consider his proposals and suggestions. Other labor officials said the federation would follow its "own program."

SERGEANT O'HARE GIVES ACCOUNT OF BERGDOLL ESCAPE

First Hand Information Given Committee by Soldier

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 11.—In giving a first hand account of the escape of Grover C. Bergdoll, Philadelphia draft dodger, Sergeant John O'Hare, in command of the escort which started out with Bergdoll from Governor's Island for the mountains of Maryland, told the house investigating committee today that he had never heard a word about the buried pot of gold until long after the prisoner had fled.

He was positive that when he started out the only instructions he received from Colonel John E. Hunt, his superior officer, was to proceed with the prisoner to Hagerstown, Maryland, get some money from a bank, take it to another bank at Philadelphia and return to the barracks. There were no written orders except to stop off at North Philadelphia meet the late D. Clarence Gibboney, Bergdoll's lawyer, and be guided by what Gibboney said, the witness declared, adding that he wanted to handcuff his prisoner, but that Hunt refused.

It was by Gibboney's order, he said, that the party halted at Philadelphia, went for a long automobile ride, with Bergdoll at the wheel, visited a burlesque show and stopped at the Bergdoll home from which the prisoner escaped.

The sergeant told how Bergdoll, who had evaded the draft for two years, was sent from the island in full uniform of an enlisted man with a hat coat indicating he belonged to the infantry.

Tells of Various Moves.
Step by step he told of various moves, up to the moment when Bergdoll walked into a bathroom to answer the telephone. He was never seen after that and the sergeant said he does not know how he got out. Except for that moment, he declared, the prisoner was never out of his sight.

No amount of cross examination could budge the witness from his statement that he was in entire ignorance of any plan to go out and dig up the buried gold, the object for which the prisoner was released.

Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll, mother of the draft evader, and James Romig, the man who was sent to Washington to get $105,000 in gold from the treasury, were around the Bergdoll home all the time the party was there, O'Hare said.

When Mrs. Bergdoll learned that her son had gone, she was greatly excited, O'Hare said. She and Romig, he added, tried to persuade him not to worry, assuring him that Bergdoll would be back after a while. As the guards were being entertained, a bottle of gin mysteriously appeared in the pool room, O'Hare testified, but he did not touch it. York drank some of it.

Tears filled the eyes of the little sergeant as he told the committee of his return to the island, empty-handed, with barely enough money to pay his fare. He was tried later by court martial and acquitted.

O'Hare was not subjected to a grilling except by one member of the committee, in an effort to bring out that he did not understand the brief order given him by Colonel Hunt.

Prospective purchasers were told dividends would be large because of the great value of the league to humanity.

DANVILLE MEN ARE CHARGED WITH USING MAILS TO DEFRAUD

Sold Stock of Motor Vehicle Company After It Was Insolvent

(By The Associated Press)
EAST ST. LOUIS, May 11.—Six men went on trial in federal court today on charges of using the mails in a scheme to defraud, in connection with the defunct Moore Motor Vehicle company of Danville, Ill.

The company was incorporated in 1919 with a capitalization of $5,000,000 but last year was thrown into a receivership.

The men on trial are: George L. Moore, original president; Edward K. Gallagher, a later president; Albert C. Leonard, treasurer; John F. Diehl, secretary; J. H. Vickers, vice president; and J. W. Patt, a stock salesman.

It is charged the men represented the company as prosperous when it was insolvent, in matter sent thru the mails. About $1,500,000 of stock was disposed of since organization of the company, it was declared.

GERMAN PRESS GREET'S CABINET WITH CONTEMPT

Bitter Feeling for Accepting of the Allied Ultimatum

BERLIN, May 11.—(By The A. P.)—The newspapers of the nationalists and industrialists today received the new cabinet and its accepting the allied ultimatum with expressions of scorn and contempt.

"The German people, insofar as it has yet been able to think and feel, will not have anything in common with the government," says the Pan-German Deutsche Zeitung. "For us this document is but a scrap of paper."

Count Friedrich Von Westarp, conservative member of the Reichstag, writing in the Kreuz Zeitung, declares the conservative did their duty in opposing acceptance of the ultimatum.

The Tages Zeitung charges that the "so-called German parliament" played France's game and that the makeup of the new cabinet accommodates the French wishes.

KANSAS CITY MAN PORTO RICAN GOVERNOR

Washington, May 11.—R. Mont Reilly, of Kansas City, Mo., was confirmed today by the senate to be governor of Porto Rico. Senator Kenyon, Republican of Iowa, was reported to have questioned in the executive session Mr. Reilly's qualifications, but further opposition did not develop.

GERMANS SEEK HARMONY IN THE NEW REICHSTAG

Getting Together Various Political Parties is Difficult

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, May 11.—The Reichstag opened a deserted appearance today, most of the members apparently not having recovered from the effects of the midnight session of yesterday. The present coalition parties met informally, while Chancellor Wirth was busy riving his hastily constructed cabinet into a coordinate ministry.

The post of foreign minister, which Dr. Wirth assumed temporarily, is still seeking a likely candidate. The majority socialists are reported to favor a man from one of the Bourgeois parties, or a non-partisan diplomatic official, in the belief that a socialist minister would likely prove prejudicial to the new cabinet.

"A socialist foreign minister would be looked upon as a Bolshevik in the United States," one of the party leaders declared in answer to a question as to whether his party would claim the vacant portfolio.

Cabinet is Weak

Gossip in the lobbies today was wholly devoted to speculation as to whether the cabinet, which commands only a parliamentary minority, would be able to carry out a constructive program. The strongest doubts are expressed among the democrats, who freely predict that the Wirth ministry will soon undergo reconstruction, now that its primary function as a "signing cabinet" has been disposed of.

The liberals insist upon the inclusion of the German peoples party in any present government, if only for the reason of nullifying opposition from the right side of the house. As the majority socialists are fundamentally opposed to allying themselves with the Stresemann party, it is a foregone conclusion that any attempt to extend the present cabinet's party structure would promptly precipitate another crisis.

The new cabinet is only able to rely upon 21 out of 469 votes, votes. Chancellor Wirth therefore will be obliged to depend upon the fifteen benevolent neutrality or support of either the peoples party or the independent socialists in a critical stage, or he may weather a parliamentary storm if given the 21 votes of the Bavarian people's party, which were cast in opposition to acceptance of the allied ultimatum Tuesday night.

Although the liberal press generally is sympathetic in its reception of the new cabinet it is not over-enthusiastic, in view of the circumstances which brought it into existence, and the fact that it is insecurely anchored in the Reichstag.

REVENUE COMMITTEE FIXES STATE RATE

Chicago Corporate $1.85, Down State Cities Remain at $1.33 1-3.

(By The Associated Press)
Springfield, Ill., May 11.—The house revenue committee today reported out the tax bills fixing rates for Chicago, Cook county, the west parks and down state municipalities.

Granting the request of the city council, the committee put the Chicago corporate rate at $1.85. The down state rate remains at $1.33 1-3. The Cook county rate is increased from 36 2-3 cents to 50 cents and the minimum rate for the west parks was set at 55 cents.

To park board, whose present rate is subject to scaling down to 31 cents, asked for a minimum of seventy cents.

QUAKERS ELIMINATE BOOK OF MORAL RULES

Philadelphia, May 11.—Hicksite Quakers, both men and women, today eliminated from the "book of rules of moral conduct" specific reference to "dancing, card playing and music" against which the sect has fought from time immemorial.

The words were supplanted by the term "doubtful diversions" and the degree to which this shall be interpreted is left to the individual conscience.

WOULD PUT TAX ON SIGHT DRAFTS

Washington, May 11.—A bill proposing a tax on sight drafts of two cents each $100 was introduced in the house today.

EMERGENCY TARIFF MEASURE PASSED BY SENATE WEDNESDAY

Retained All the Amendments Recommended by the Committee—All Amendments Presented by Individuals are Rejected—To Be Effective for Period of Six Months

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 11.—The senate late today passed the emergency tariff and anti-dumping bill, retaining all amendments recommended by the finance committee, but rejecting those individually proposed. The vote was 63 to 28.

Seven Democrats, Senators Broussard, Louisiana; Jones, New Mexico; Kendrick, Wyoming; Myers, Montana; Pittman, Nevada; Ransdell, Louisiana, and Sheppard, Texas, voted for the bill. Another Democrat, Ashurst, Arizona, who was absent, was announced as a supporter. Only one Republican, Senator Moses, of New Hampshire, voted against the measure.

The measure differs radically from the form in which it was passed by the house and now goes to conference. Only the tariff features were kept intact, the anti-dumping and currency revaluation sections being entirely rewritten and the provision added for continuation of the war time restrictions on imports of dyestuffs.

WOMENS EIGHT HOUR DAY BILL GOES TO SENATE

Present Status of Various Bills Before Legislature

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, May 11.—The Sneed eight hour day bill for women was reported out to the senate by the committee on corporations and industrial affairs without recommendation tonight.

When Chairman Kessinger called the committee meeting several senators declared they were too tired after the long session today to hear any more debates. After a short discussion an agreement to consider the bills only on the floor of the senate was reached.

Action on Senator Wheeler's county health commission bill authorizing the governor to appoint a commissioner in each of the 102 counties of the state was postponed until next week by the house committee on efficiency and economy after an executive session tonight.

While the house committee was holding up action on the bill Senator Wheeler introduced a measure appropriating $510,000 to pay the salaries of the 102 commissioners.

Organized labor's trio of bills were before the house judiciary and senate industrial affairs committee at a joint meeting today.

Seven labor leaders argued for adoption of the anti-injunction, anti-contempt of court and collective bargaining bills. The speakers included John H. Walker, president, and Victor Olander, secretary of the Illinois Federation of Labor; A. W. Kerr, attorney of the United Mine Workers; George W. Perkins, international president of the Cigar Makers Union; Agnes Nestor, president of the Women's Trade Union League; W. W. Carroll, of Peoria, representing the Railway Conductors and Dennis McCarthy of Chicago for the railway brotherhoods.

The senate passed the Sneed bill appropriating $5,000 to the widow of Joseph C. Thompson, former director of the state department of mines and minerals who died as a result of injuries received while inspecting a mine.

PLAN PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT ABROAD

Washington, May 11.—Enforcement of the prohibition amendment in the United States consular districts in China and other foreign countries where treaties do not prevent is proposed in a bill introduced in the house today.

FAVOR COMPULSORY POOLING OF WHEAT

Spokane, Wn., May 11.—About 100 wheat growers of Washington and Northern Idaho, conferring here with representatives of the United States Grain Growers, Inc., voted unanimously today in favor of compulsory pooling of wheat for marketing.

Action came at the end of five hours of driving attack by Democratic leaders. The latter were not alone in their attempts to amend the measure, however, for several Republicans' efforts to broaden its scope were defeated.

Oppose Federal Control of Dyes.
Late in the day Democrats concentrated on the committee addition providing for continued federal control of dye importations. Senators charged frequently that the amendment would create a monopolistic control of the dye industry and turn over the consumers to the whims and "will of one man." A roll call left it as a part of the bill, 61 to 25.

Senator King, Democrat of Utah, was not content and made another effort to strike out the dye provision. That also failed.

There were successive attempts by some Democrats who favored the measure to increase rates on particular commodities. The fight of Senator Ashurst, Democrat, of Arizona, to raise the rate of long staple cotton from 7 cents as fixed in the bill to 20 cents, failed, as did also one by Senator Jones, Democrat, of New Mexico, to have the bill include hides within the scope of its protection.

Senator Harrison, Democrat, of Mississippi, in a final onslaught on the bill, challenged its Republican supporters as to their sincerity in desire to help the farmers. He then offered an amendment which would have exempted from the application of the anti-dumping section all farming implements and other equipment used by the farmers.

His proposition was rejected without a record vote.

It was deemed unlikely that attempts to iron out the differences between the senate and house would be made before Friday.

Would Be Effective Six Months.
As passed by the senate the bill is to be effective for six months by which time it is hoped the permanent tariff law, now being formed by the house ways and means committee, will have been enacted into law. It provided rates of duty on wheat, corn, beans, peanuts, potatoes, rice, cattle, sheep, meats, long staple cotton and cotton manufacturers, wool and wool manufacturers, sugar, milk, wrapper and filler tobacco and other farm products.

In addition to the tariff provisions, the bill carries an anti-dumping section designed to check the influx of cheaply manufactured foreign goods. Provision is made for the inspection of foreign exporters' books to determine costs where necessary for the assessment of duties. The present war time control of importations of dyestuffs is continued and the war trade board section of the state department now handling that work is transferred to the treasury.

Provision is made for the revaluation of all foreign currency on the basis of "buying rates" of exchanges as quoted on the daily market.

If a measure now before the legislature becomes a law it will be optional with women whether or not they serve on juries. Since women have taken on the obligations of citizenship there is some question as to the propriety of their escaping jury service. However, it must be admitted that under various circumstances it will be difficult to work out a satisfactory plan for joint jury service of men and women.

Dispatches indicate that a temporary cabinet was set up in Germany particularly for the purpose of yielding to the allied demands for reparations. The leaders there must have known that payment was inevitable but they were glad to pass on the responsibility of acceptance to other men not so prominent in public life.

The strange thing about it to the average mind is that there could be so much discussion of this question, nearly two years after the signing of the armistice.

About the best proof of the improvement of business conditions is found in Detroit, the center of the automobile industry. The records there show that there are now about 75,000 in the ranks of the unemployed while five or six months ago the total number was 220,000.

Secretary Wallace in an address in St. Louis predicted that all business is to continue on levels much higher than before the war and said that these higher levels when stabilized, will be better for all parties concerned, including the farmers. The important thing is to have these higher levels equitably distributed. With some commodities high and others out of proportion, it's not possible to maintain business conditions that are satisfactory in a widespread way.

AMERICANISM INCLUDES HEALTH

Chairman Simeon D. Fess of the National Republican Congressional Committee, is anxious that Americanism include the highest physical development of the youth of the country. Formerly president of Antioch College and now chairman of the House Committee on Education, he has introduced a measure providing for co-operation between the Federal and state governments with this end in view.

The purpose and aim of physical education is declared in the meaning of the bill to more fully and thoroughly prepare the boys and girls of the nation for the duties and responsibilities of citizenship thru the development of bodily vigor and endurance, muscular strength and skill, bodily and mental poise, and such desirable moral and social qualities as courage, self-control, self-subordination, co-operation under leadership, and disciplined initiative.

To further this purpose the bill provides $10,000,000 for co-operation with the states in the preparation of supervisors and teachers of physical education, including school health supervisors and school nurses, thru normal schools and other institutions of higher learning, and for the payment of their salaries.

The statement just issued by Col. Miller for the department of public works reiterates Gov. Small's position on the hard roads program. The governor has made it plain that he cannot be moved by the hue and cry of "build roads whatever the cost." It is his announced intention to proceed with hard road building only when he has assurance that the prices asked for materials will make it possible to give to the state full value for the money expended on highway betterments.

The governor has been a consistent advocate of hard roads and in postponing work he is actuated by the one purpose of a desire to save money for the people of the state.

IN PARIS THEY NOW WEAR THEIR HAIR TO MATCH THE HAT
Loose curls of soft grey hair, perfectly natural of course, are worn by the maids of Paris with hats of this type. The hat, to match, is made of pearl grey crepe de chine. Bunches of Myosotis are placed beneath with wide brim to relieve the natural color and add warmth to the tone of the curls.

GEORGE CLARK DIED AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Colored Man Became Unconscious Saturday Night at Home of Friend—Coroner Will Hold Inquest.

George Clark, a colored resident of the city, died at his home, 437 South Clay avenue, at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The facts surrounding the death were such that Coroner Rose will hold an inquest this morning. Clark had been working as a C. & A. section hand and when he did not return home Saturday afternoon his wife called the section foreman and later began a search for her husband.

A few hours later he was found at the home of a Mr. Williams, a friend on Washington street, and was in an unconscious condition. He was removed to his home but at no time did he recover sufficiently to explain just what had happened to him. According to Williams' statement Clark complained of not feeling well, went into the house to lie down and soon became unconscious.

The deceased was fifty-three years of age and had spent most of his life in this city. For a period of years he was employed by the late Edward Whitmer at the brick yard east of the city. Then he became a hod carrier but for several years had worked as a railroad section hand.

The deceased is survived by his wife and two step-children, Charles and Roland Daly. The deceased was an officer of Fidelity Lodge G. U. O. F. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Mt. Emory church of which he was a member.

PROMINENT WOODSON MAN HAS BIRTHDAY

Seventy-ninth Anniversary of Dr. G. W. Miller Observed Wednesday—Masonic Friends Guests at Dinner at Miller Home.

Wednesday was the seventy-ninth birthday anniversary of Dr. G. W. Miller of Woodson and the occasion was observed in a most fitting way. Twelve of the Masonic friends of Dr. Miller were guests at 6 o'clock dinner at his home last night. The affair was planned by Miss Marie Megginson, niece of Dr. Miller and was a complete surprise to the host. Miss Megginson was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. H. G. Smith, Mrs. Len Watson, Miss Carmen Dugger of Jacksonville, Misses Allen Watson and Marguerite Steinmetz.

The guests included Dr. R. O. Buckthorpe, John S. Hackett, Clifford Smith, William C. Lewis, John Phillips and R. D. Megginson, all of this city; C. C. Self, W. D. Henry, George Craig and John Shirley of Woodson.

After the serving of the very excellent dinner came an informal musical program, selections being given by Miss Dugger and Miss Megginson. Later some time was spent in a very pleasant social way.

Dr. Miller, who is one of the best known residents of Woodson, has been living in Morgan county since 1872. He is a graduate of Illinois college and later completed a medical course. For years he practiced medicine in Woodson and was very successful in his chosen profession. Dr. Miller is also a minister of some prominence and altho he has retired from active life he is still a powerful influence in the Woodson community. His many friends hope for many returns of the anniversary.

STAGE IS ALL SET FOR BIG CONFERENCE

Committee Has Left Nothing Undone to Make the Occasion One of Interest—Bready to Speak on the Four Square City.

The community conference committee reports that the stage is all set for the first big meeting of citizens, this evening, Armory Hall, south side of the square, at 8 o'clock. The committee has left nothing undone to make this gathering a very interesting and profitable one in laying before the public the plans contemplated in the organization of an active, modern chamber of commerce for Jacksonville. There is good reason to feel optimistic as to a large representative attendance as judged by the numerous returns coming into organization headquarters on every mail.

R. H. Bready, an active director of the Pontiac, Mich., Board of Commerce, city commissioner and mayor pro tem, will be the main speaker of the evening. Mr. Bready in addition to his enthusiasm and knowledge concerning the functions of a modern chamber of commerce is today one of the most able men in the United States on the lecture platform. It is said that a lecture on "The Four Square City" is one of the very best being delivered in this country. Every public-spirited citizen of Jacksonville should not fail to avail himself of the rare opportunity of hearing such a forceful speaker as Mr. Bready, a man who is a student of the development of cities and of modern civic-commercial organizations, and one who has delighted audiences in scores of other cities with his splendid conception of the obligation of citizens.

Mayor E. E. Crabtree, H. M. Capps and Dr. J. R. Harker will make short addresses. There will be absolutely no solicitation of membership or funds at this meeting. The citizens of Jacksonville are cordially invited and urged to be present at this big civic rally this evening, Armory Hall, 8 o'clock.

All the members of the ladies' aid are especially asked to be on hand and assist in serving. After dinner there will be a formal program. President A. A. Curry presiding, while addresses will be made by Mayor Crabtree and H. H. Bancroft.

It is especially desired that all who can possibly do so, be on hand and inspect the building and all that pertains to it and to see the plans for the new laundry and various improvements to be made. These have been enumerated and will place the hospital in fine condition for best work when done.

All people from both city and county are urgently asked to be on hand that the day may be duly celebrated. All residents of Morgan county should remember that it is their hospital and to them it looks for support and patronage. For moral support and general uplift. The management wants the good will of all who should be patrons of the institution and urgently asks them to call today if possible; if not today, then some other day, and thus become acquainted with the institution and the work it is doing.

In case of bad weather the picnic dinner will be at Central Christian church.

ROUGH SAILING PROMISED FOR KENYON'S BILL

Proposed Establishment of Department of Public Welfare

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 11.—Indications that the proposal to create a department of public welfare will not have smooth sailing thru congress were furnished today at initial hearings by senate and house education committees on the pending Kenyon bill which embodies the principles of such a department as endorsed by President Harding and as worked out at his direction by Brig. General C. E. Sawyer, his physician. General Sawyer was subjected to extensive questioning by members of the committee who wanted to know if the consolidation of the educational, social and humanitarian bureaus of the government would add to the number of government employees and to governmental expenditures. Mr. Sawyer contended that thru elimination of duplication both the number of employees and the expense would be reduced and promised the committee figures to substantiate his assertion.

The most pronounced opposition came from supporters of the proposal to establish a department of education. Representative Townner, Republican, of Iowa, author of the department of education bill, argued that the educational forces would not be satisfied with a division of education in a department of public welfare bureau and those that would not fall in line evidently did not have the best interests of education at heart.

ARCHBISHOP IS TENDERED FAREWELL
London, May 11.—Archbishop Mannix of Australia, who will leave for home soon, today was tendered a farewell luncheon at which he received a eulogistic address from the bishops and priests of Ireland and also valuable gifts.

The archbishop in replying said he never would be prouder of being an Irishman on the day he was returning to tell the Australians that nothing stood in the way of peace between Great Britain and Ireland "but British crime and British aggression."

VALUE OF ESTATE IS $5,000,000

Control of Fairbanks-Morse Companies divided Between Two Sons — Daughters Receive Stocks and Bonds.

CHICAGO, May 11.—An estate valued at $5,000,000 was left by Charles H. Morse, scale and machinery manufacturer who died May 5 at Winter Park, Fla., according to the will filed for probate today.

The widow, Mrs. Helen H. Morse, is bequeathed the residence at Winter Park, and it is understood that a fortune in lieu of a dowry, was settled upon her by her husband before his death. Under the terms of the will the two sons, Charles H. Jr., and Robert, divide control of Fairbanks-Morse companies between them, while a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Morse Genius, receives real estate and large blocks of stocks and bonds.

WANTS ACTION NOT WORDS
Paris, May 11.—German acceptance of the allied ultimatum is construed by the Paris afternoon papers as merely the first step. As the Temps says: "We wait to judge Germany not by her signature but by her acts." La Liberte, declares that signature "is worth very little. Acceptance is given only to avoid a greater evil, with to thought in mind that the essential thing was to gain time."

BELIEVES WAR VETS MONEY BEING DIVERTED
Washington, May 11.—Declaring there is reason to believe that "large sums" collected by various organizations and individuals for the benefit of disabled war veterans are being "diverted from their original and lawful purposes" Representative Johnson, Republican of South Dakota, introduced today a resolution for a congressional investigation of the collection and expenditure of such money.

Allen Lenington of Chapin was among the travelers to the city yesterday.

MAKING GREAT PLANS TO ENTERTAIN CONGRESS

Honolulu Committee Planning to Show Delegates to Press Congress of the World a Great Time.

Columbia, Mo.—(By The A. P.)—From the Honolulu Committee now making arrangements for the 1921 meeting of the Press Congress of the World, to be held in Honolulu October 3 to 14, plans for a part of the entertainment to be offered the Congress delegates have been received here by Walter Williams, the president of the Congress.

A part of the time will be occupied by business sessions, when problems of communication, and other matters of high interest to the profession will be discussed. The remaining time will be filled with a program of excursions, banquets, fairs, beach parties, and a dozen other kinds of delightful entertainments. In the preparation for the delegates and their families who will attend the Press Congress the Hawaiians apparently have resolved to set a new high mark.

The tentative program for a single day will give the imagination a good start in the right direction. The Pan-Pacific Press Conference, as a department of the Press Congress of the World, will hold a day's session in the course of ten days. Alexander Home Ford, secretary of the Pan-Pacific Union and editor of The Mid-Pacific Magazine, is preparing the program for that day.

Pan-Pacific Day at the Press Congress will begin with a reception before the morning session at the Iolani Palace, a reception in which the children of all the schools will participate. The children will be divided into groups, each group representing a state of the Union and marching around the Palace in a pageant of states. They will be robed in the colors of the states they represent and carry the floral emblems and flags of the states. It is expected that the ex-president of the Hawaiian republic, Sanford B. Dole, and the former governors of the Territory, will lead the state pageant, which will be reviewed by the delegates to the Press Congress representing every country of the globe.

At the official morning session in the afternoon it is probable that the organization of the Pan-Pacific Association will be perfected, and plans outlined for bringing together every year, or every two years, the editors of magazines and newspapers published in Pacific Islands.

After the morning session it is proposed to have the Boy and Girl Scouts of all Pacific races escort the delegates from the Palace grounds across the street to the Armory for a luncheon, which the Scouts will assist in serving. During luncheon jiu jitsu artists from Japan will hold contests on a platform in the center of the great floor, while the athletic sports of other Pacific lands likewise will be enjoyed and Duke Kahanomoku will make a brief address in Hawaiian. After lunch the Boy Scouts will escort the delegates back to the Palace for the afternoon session of the Pan-Pacific conference.

At the conclusion of the afternoon session the delegates will gather on the makai lanai of the palace building to receive the flags of all Pacific nations. This is the remarkable pageant of Pacific races that so enthralled Franklin K. Lane, when as secretary of the Interior visited Hawaii.

The delegates will then be guests of honor at a Pan-Pacific dinner served on the Palace grounds about the band stands, on which will be performed the dances of all the Pacific peoples and the national songs of all Pacific lands will be sung by their native sons and daughters.

CHICAGO DRUGGISTS VICTIMS OF ALLEGED PROHIBITION AGENTS

Said to Have Been relieved Of Over $200,000

CHICAGO, May 11.—Details of what was said to be the biggest shake-down since advent of prohibition were revealed today by Colonel A. C. Eanshaw of the federal special intelligence service. More than $200,000 was exacted from Chicago druggists, according to Colonel Eanshaw, by two former agents of the prohibition enforcement office and a former Chicago policeman.

The men are Victor J. Peterson and Joseph Morris, and Leo C. Powers, former policeman. All are said to have confessed. They will be tried on charges of representing themselves as federal officers.

Men Held Under Bond
The three were held in $5,000 bonds each when they appeared before Commissioner Glass. The hearing was set for Friday. Peterson and Morris were once employed as prohibition agents under Major J. V. Dalrymple. They left the service at the time Dalrymple retired.

According to Colonel Eanshaw the men would inspect the liquor stocks and sales record of a druggist and if these were found not in proper order the druggist would be placed under "arrest."

An opportunity would be given the victim to suggest a payment of money. "We never took less than $200 from a druggist," one was said by Colonel Eanshaw to have confessed.

The activities of the trio were discovered when one sent a taxicab driver to the federal building to collect a bill for cab service.

GENERAL DEGOUTTE WILL ARRIVE TODAY

Duesseldorf, May 11.—General Degoutte, commander of the allied armies on the Rhine, with a greatly reduced staff—fifteen instead of 90—will arrive here from Mayence tomorrow. The arrangement made days ago will be adhered to irrespective of the latest developments, which, according to members of General Degoutte's staff, make the occupation of the Ruhr district extremely unlikely.

GERMAN ACCEPTANCE CAUSES LITTLE STIR

Essen, May 11.—The announcement of the acceptance by Germany of all the terms of the allied ultimatum was received with rather mild interest today. The general impression in Essen is that France will not be satisfied with signature by Germany, but with a guarantee.

SIMPLE WAY TO GET RID OF BLACKHEADS

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads and that is to dissolve them.

To do this get two ounces of calomel powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads, briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dust and dirt and secretions from the body that form in the pores of the skin. Pinching and squeezing only cause irritation, make large pores and do not get them out after they become hard. The calomel powder and the water simply dissolve the blackheads with right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition. Anyone troubled with these unsightly blemishes should certainly try this simple method.

INTER-COASTAL TRAFFIC GIVEN AS ONE REASON

Railroad Head Says it is Responsible for Some Troubles

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Direct examination of Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the board of the Southern Pacific, was concluded today by the senate interstate commerce committee in its investigation of the country's railroad difficulties.

Altho emphasizing that high labor costs were foremost in the list of handicaps which, he said, were preventing the roads from making adequate returns on investment, or even meeting expenses, Mr. Kruttschnitt complained of competition "favored by government subsidy" which the transcontinental lines particularly were meeting.

Constantly Increasing Inter-coastal Traffic
Constantly increasing inter-coastal traffic thru the Panama Canal, in part "financed by the shipping board out of the treasury" was a prime factor, he said, while a second was the use of "automobile trucks on highways maintained by the state and national government which they destroy without making any payment."

Committee members frequently interrupted the witness with questions on both these points. Traffic was not going by way of Panama because transcontinental rates had been made excessive by the increases during the last three years, he asserted, and he launched into a defense of the present general rate level.

Altho "propaganda for lower rates" existed, Mr. Kruttschnitt said the cost of transportation was entirely justifiable. He denied positively that the increase in freight and passenger business was a general condition for which the rate fabric was responsible.

FACTS ABOUT HARD ROADS ARE GIVEN

Col. Miller Makes Clear Statement as to Administration Policy—State is Demanding Full Value of Every Dollar Spent on Roads.

Col. C. R. Miller, director of the department of public works has addressed to the newspapers of the state a letter in which he freely sets forth the attitude of the administration with reference to the good roads program. Col. Miller makes it clear that while the governor is very strongly in favor of hard roads he does not believe in construction without regard to cost. It is the firm intention of the administration to withstand the attacks made in certain quarters in the effort to have roads built regardless of cost.

The following paragraphs from the statement leave no doubt as to the position of both Gov. Small and Col. Miller on this very important question:

The Big Problem.
There is one great problem confronting this administration, and the people of our state—the completion of our good road program. The issue is simple:

There are interests—selfish interests, we are convinced—operating throughout Illinois. They demand that we go ahead with the building of roads, "regardless of cost."

There is no man in the state more anxious to pull Illinois out of the mud at the earliest possible moment than Governor Small. But he is determined, in spending the people's money, to get a dollar's worth of hard roads for every dollar spent. As he recently remarked, "I do not believe the farmers of Illinois should be compelled to exchange 100,000 bushels of corn for one mile of hard-surfaced road."

To follow the program of these interests means that many communities—perhaps yours—will not get the hard roads which have been allotted to them; it means the building of a "minimum mileage at a maximum cost."

To adhere to the program of this administration, on the other hand, insures the construction of "maximum mileage at a minimum cost."

The Best Program.
In our judgment there is no question as to which program is most desirable, most desired, by the whole people of Illinois. And the administration program can be successfully carried out with the aid and co-operation of the fair-minded press of the state.

On the other hand the interests are most active. Their propaganda is flooding the state. Their emissaries are spreading their gospel of "build, build at once, regardless of cost."

Paid, professional press agents are at work. They are deluging newspaper offices with carefully prepared articles seeking to break down the effort of the administration to bring prices to a level where good roads may be constructed at an equitable cost.

The methods followed are questionable, if not dishonorable. Facts are garbled. Much of the "information" offered is without any foundation whatsoever, and some of it is absolute falsehood.

As an example: I have on my desk a sheaf of "press stories" on the subject of good roads work in Illinois. It is "copy" sent out by Illinois editors, and prepared by a paid press agent who was hired with the instructions: "Educate the people to demand the building of roads at once 'regardless of cost.'"

This particular press agent, for example, in an effort to mislead editors, as well as the people, and to secure publication for his garbled and untrue statements, seeks to convey the impression that he is speaking for this administration. In a confidential note to editors attached to one of his stories, he says:

"It is the desire of the state officials and good roads boosters to rightly inform those who do not realize this situation."

For the interests
I feel compelled, as a result of this misrepresentation to say that neither the governor, myself nor others connected with the administration, ever heard of this press agent until he commenced his effort to embarrass our program which has as its basic principle the securing of fair prices for road materials and construction. The personal identification of his employers is not here essential. Suffice it to say, he cares not—nor do his employers—about building roads; he is interested solely in letting contracts, and selling road materials. And his mission is most dangerous to the best interests of the state. Publication of his propaganda can never promote sane and successful good road construction. Its circulation tends only to keep Illinois in the mud, instead of pulling it out.

We are succeeding in our efforts to obtain "maximum mileage at minimum cost." The backbone of high-priced road construction has been broken. Cost levels are lower, as evidenced by the recent letting of Kane County contracts at a saving of approximately $40,000 on a fifteen mile stretch of bond issue roads, and the average reduction of 17 per cent in grading and 11 per cent in bridge contracts.

But the aid of the fair-minded press of the state is needed if this success is to continue. We are not asking for the suppression of fact. We are simply seeking to protect the people of our state from the effect of inspired propaganda.

POLISH TOWNS
OBSERVE ARMISTICE

Will Rest on Arms During Conversations to Settle Trouble.

(By The Associated Press)

Oppeln, May 11.—Fighting is continuing in Ratibor, Kosel and Rosenberg, despite the fact that Adelbert Korfanty, leader of the insurgent Poles, has agreed that the Polish forces will "observe an armistice during conversations looking to a settlement of the trouble." The Poles are reported to be using heavy artillery in Kosel.

Daniel Kresyski, Polish consul general, said today that the Polish forces probably had not heard of Korfanty's agreement owing to faulty communications and would cease fighting when they knew of it. Asked what he expected would result from the "conversation" Kresyski said:

"The Poles certainly will insist upon a bigger share in the division of Upper Silesia than they have had. They do not want the inter-allied commission done away with, but they want more recognition from it."

Kresyski declared the Poles feared a German offensive, believing that if the Germans got the upper hand "there will be no Poles left alive down here."

SAYS PAPERS THAT WOULD PROVE HIS INNOCENCE STOLEN

Everett Harding Tells Landis Was Promised Secretary's Job

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, May 11.—Everett Harding, whose dreams of political preferment and wealth were shattered several weeks ago when federal officers arrested him, told Federal Judge K. M. Landis today that government officials entered his home and stole papers that would prove his innocence of charges of impersonating a federal officer and that a high official in Washington had promised Everett the post of assistant secretary to the president. Harding refused to give his name until the case comes to trial on May 23.

Judge Landis overruled a motion of demurrer on the indictment and refused to permit the defendant to withdraw his plea of not guilty. He also denied requests to reduce the bonds of $5,000 in which Everett has been held.

With the stipulation that his testimony would be the same as he might give at the trial, N. P. Webster, disbarred clerk at the white house in Washington, was permitted to testify today. He said there never has been a person known as Everett Harding on the government pay roll.

YOUNG GIRLS NEED CARE

Mothers! Watch Your Daughters' Health

Health Is Happiness

From the time a girl reaches the age of twelve until womanhood is established she needs all the care the thoughtful mother can give.

The condition that the girl is then passing through is so critical and may have such far-reaching effects upon her future happiness and health that it is almost criminal for a mother or guardian to withhold counsel or advice.

Many a woman has suffered years of prolonged pain and misery through having been the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance on the part of those who should have guided her through the dangers and difficulties that beset this period.

Mothers should teach their girls what danger comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from lifting heavy articles, and from overworking. Do not let her overstudy. If she complains of headache, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, make life easier for her. She needs thoughtful care for a few years.

In all such cases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be given as it is especially adapted for such conditions. It contains nothing that can injure and can be taken in perfect safety.

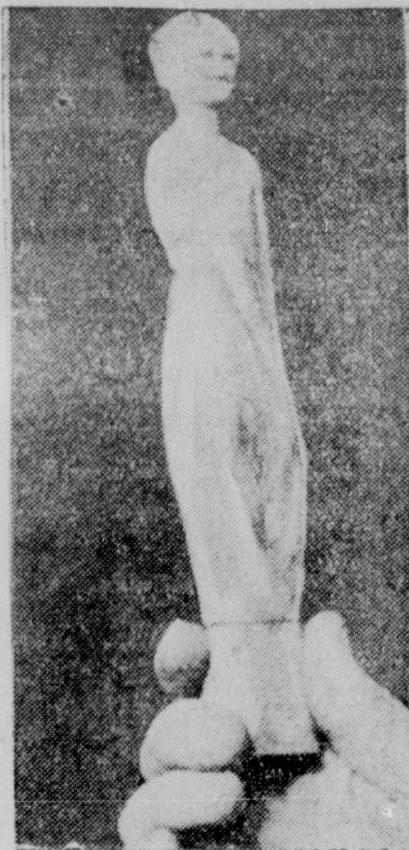

Read how Mrs. Eicher helped her daughter. She says: "At the age of sixteen my daughter was having trouble every month. She had pains across her back and in her sides. Every month her back would pain her so she could not do her work and would have to lie down. My married daughter recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I read the books which were left at my door. She took it faithfully and is now regular and has no pain. We recommend the Vegetable Compound and give you permission to publish this letter in your little books and in the newspapers."—Mrs. KATIE EICHER, 4034 N. Fairhill St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Williams will profit by her own experience. She says: "When I was thirteen years old I had sick spells each month and as I was very backward I would bear the pain and my mother knew nothing about it. I read in the daily paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took my own spending money and bought a bottle. It helped me so much that I took it regularly after that until I had taken two bottles and I did not have any more pain or headache and have been a healthy, strong woman. I am now 39 years old and have a little girl of my own, and when she gets old enough I shall give her none other than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. C. E. WILLIAMS, 2437 W. Toronto St., Philadelphia, Pa.

For almost fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been relieving women, young and old, of ailments peculiar to their sex. Ask your neighbor about it, for in every neighborhood there are women who know of its merits.

Thousands of letters similar to the above are in the files of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., and for years such letters have been published. Surely it is worth your while to make a fair trial of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. A book contains valuable information.

STOKES' LAWYERS EXHIBIT MODEL OF APARTMENTS IN COURT

A miniature model of the scene of the "tin roof testimony" in the Stokes divorce case, was introduced in evidence at the trial in New York. Attorneys for Mr. Stokes had the model made in an attempt to demonstrate that persons on the roof of the extension adjoining the apartment of Edgar T. Wallace, could have looked into Wallace's bedroom, where Mrs. Stokes is alleged to have been seen. Complete in every important feature, the model even included an effigy of Mrs. Stokes. Photos show the apartment model and the wooden figure used in the court demonstration.

The Jones Chautauqua System

There is Strength in Every Tablet

One dose often helps commence to enrich your blood and revitalize your worn-out exhausted nerves. Nuts are iron. Iron is organic. Iron, like the iron in your blood and like the iron in your spine, it is so prepared that it will not injure the teeth, no disturbs the stomach. It is ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood while some physicians claim metallic iron which people usually take is not absorbed at all. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two iron tablets three times a day, after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. All druggists.

ILLINOIS ROMPS AWAY FROM CHICAGO

Win Game by Score of 11 to 1—Mee Steals Three Bases—Came Near Stealing Catcher's Mask.

CHICAGO, May 11.—Illinois' undefeated baseball team romped away with a 11 to 1 victory over Chicago in a western conference game today. The game moved along evenly for five innings, when the Illini began to score on Chenecek and he was removed in the 7th.

The clean fielding of Illinois and the support given Jackson were responsible for the first tallies as the Maroons connected with Jackson frequently. Mee gave a nice exhibition of stealing in the seventh when he stole second, third and home. Vogel and McCurdy got triples for Illinois and Dixon got a three bagger in the first. Score:

WHITE HALL, May 10.—Wrights defeated the White Hall Indians in a baseball game here Sunday, 10 to 3. Failure of the locals to field the ball properly resulted in a bulk of the visitors' runs. Wright, the local pitcher, allowed seven hits, while White Hall collected six hits off Barton, the hurler used by Wrights. White Hall will probably play Alsey at the local park next Sunday.

GREAT COLLECTION OF JAVELIN THROWERS

Smiling Jack Hathaway, Captain of Football Team One of Greatest All-Around Athletes Ever at the School.

CHICAGO, May 11.—Smiling Jack Hathaway, captain of the Northwestern University football eleven for 1921, is regarded by his admirers as one of the greatest all-around athletes developed in the Western Conference in years.

His name is Stanley E. Hathaway and his home is in Covington, Indiana. Jack played guard on the varsity football team of 1919 and although weighing only 158 pounds he took the position of center in 1920. He held the biggest and huskiest of opposing centers and fought them to a standstill last season.

Here are a few of his records:

In water basketball, all-western conference, guard, 1919; the same in 1920; in wrestling, 158 pound class, second place, conference, 1919; captain of wrestling team, 1920, and tied for first in the western inter-collegiate wrestling meet and first in Big Ten conference meet; boxing, 158 pound champion of Northwestern, 1919.

Hathaway is president of the Men's Athletic Association at the university, is a member of the student council and of the senior honorary fraternity. Activity in athletics hasn't hardened his heart nor lowered Jack's ideals, for Director Evans says, "This man Hathaway has fine principles and lives a life that should be an example to all young men in or out of the university."

MULRENAN TOSSES AWAY OWN GAME

Walks Eight Men and Tries to Catch Throw With One Hand Allowing Run to Score.

CHICAGO, May 11.—Wildness and carelessness on part of Mulrenan was responsible for Boston scoring a 3 to 2 victory over Chicago today. Mulrenan walked eight men, and with a man on first and third he tried to take a throw from Schaak with one hand and fumbled the ball which allowed the visitors to score their second run in the third inning. Two walks in the fourth coupled with two hits sent in the winning run. Pennock was hit hard but managed to keep the hits scattered. Score:

DECATUR LEADERS TO BE HERE SUNDAY

Fast Team Will Meet Indians at South Side Park—Game Between Teams Last Year Resulted in Score of 2 to 0 in Favor of Indians.

With the Decatur Leaders expected for next Sunday fans are promised another good game. The Leaders played here last season and lost the game by the close score of 2 to 0.

The Leaders have the same lineup as last season except that they have three new pitchers and expect to give the Indians a strong argument before acknowledging defeat.

Hamm and Sims have been working out each night this week and both are showing good stuff. It is not known which one will draw the assignment, but either one is ready to go and should be able to give the visitors a strong argument.

The Indians will work out Friday evening at the State Hospital diamond. The lineup of the two teams for Sunday's game will be given later.

Daily Market Report

DECIDED ADVANCE
IN PRICE OF WHEAT

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, May 11.—Increased anxiety over crop damage reports had a large share in bringing about a decided advance today in the price of wheat. The market closed strong 3½ to 5½ c higher with May $1.44½, and July $1.14½ to $1.16½. Corn gained ¼ to ¾c, oats 1½ to 1½c and provisions 27 to 62c.

Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska,
Texas, Missouri and Indiana sent unfavorable news regarding winter wheat and there was active general buying, except during a brief interval after word was received that rains had fallen in Western Kansas. The consequent upward swing was facilitated by statements of Secretary Wallace favoring a higher scale of prices than before the

GREENE COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL MEET THURSDAY

Twentieth Annual Meet of County High School Association Scheduled for This Week—Meet to be Hotly Contested.

White Hall, May 11—The twentieth annual meet of the Greene County High School association will be held at White Hall Thursday of this week. This association conducts contests in literary and musical, and track and field events, and consists of the four-year high schools in the county—Roodhouse, Greenfield, Carrollton and White Hall. The literary and musical contests will begin at 9:30 a. m. The literary contests will be conducted at the Methodist church and the musical contest will be held at the Princess theatre. The track and field contest will be held at Pine Grove track commencing at 1:30 p. m.

The meet this year will be hotly contested as three of the schools—Greenfield, Carrollton and White Hall have done good work in recent meets. Carrollton won over Jerseyville and Carlinville in a triangular meet recently, and Greenfield defeated Winchester in a dual meet. White Hall carried off the honors by defeating Greenfield in the Illinois Western League meet at Jacksonville last Saturday.

All the schools have splendid teams and quite a few records will probably be smashed.

Supt. Smith of the local schools, who is president of the county association, is making big preparations for the meet. It has been fully advertised in all the neighboring towns and cities and at least 2,000 people are expected to come to White Hall for the contests. The Chicago and Alton railway will run a special train from Greenfield to accommodate the southern half of the county.

The town will be beautifully decorated in the colors of the four schools and a grand welcome will be given visitors. Mayor Roodhouse has issued a proclamation asking the business houses to close from one to five o'clock in order that all may attend the track and field meet.
